

Easter Hymn

Cantánima (revisions 1998–2015)

Cre-a - tion re - sounds with Your praise, ble - sed Christ: You rose from the tomb to an un - end - ing life! The an - gels re - joice in a glad, joy - ful tongue; the Church lifts her voice to ac - claim You in song: "All ...

2. "All glory to God in the heavens most high!
A myst'ry revealed in the fulness of time:
the Word in our nature, a Virgin conceive,
a just man condemned, and the guilty redeemed!"
3. No reason to shrink from the once-darkened skies:
the shadow of death, overcome, is in flight!
The Author of Life brings eternity's day,
and rises, the sun who illumines the Way.
4. "In Your light alone can we see life aright;
in Your reign alone can the nations unite;
in Your grace alone lie the stores of true wealth;
Your Spirit alone gives the soul lasting breath.
5. "We thank You, adore, You, acclaim You as King,
for You sent the Spirit in Whom we now sing
Your sweetness, Your goodness, Your splendor, Your praise, and ask: to Your Father direct every gaze."